NOT merely for the learning we have gained within your walls.

Or for the warmth and fellowship resounded through your halls.

Not only for the welcomed help and guiding hand of those Whose conscientious job it was, knowledge to disclose,

Not merely for the memories we've gained throughout the year.

Or for the happy times we've had that somehow still adhere.

No, not just for these but for something more.
For the spirit of friendliness that remains evermore

A beacon to those who in years hence succeed us.

Let it thus be forever a pathway to lead us.

OUR PRINCIPAL

B-Hi activities, which sometimes resemble a three-ring circus more than a three-act play, were under the direction of I. R. (Mike) Metzler, principal.

His duties ran the gamut of helping a freshman schedule his classes to wrestling the problems of major constructions.

As a former athlete, coach and classroom teacher, the "man in the gray suit" had the ability to see all sides of the administrative problems.

Bernard (Gene) Freese became a familiar figure in the office as he assumed his position as vice-principal. He also served as head football coach and assisted in other sports.

DIRECTOR'S STAFF INCREASES

With a total of sixty-seven classes being taught, in fourteen fields of study, Beaverton's ever-increasing faculty had a busy year. New instructors this year were: Miss Elaine Hayden, Mrs. Marcia Anderson, Mrs. Molly Lou Stouffer, Miss Arlene Peterson, Mr. Duane Moore, Mr. Ted Van Buren, Mr. and Mrs. Art Bakke and Mr. Gerald Baker.

Miss Geraldine Sanford, head of the English department, was again director of the adult education program, which held classes every Monday evening.

Teaching his twenty-fifth year at B. H. S., speech department head E. G. Webb still turned out winners.

The "Little Theater" became the center of talent, being shared by Mrs. Duncan's girls' glee club and choir, Mr. Webb's speech department, and the dramatics class, the first in ten years, directed by Mrs. Molly Lou Stouffer.

Mrs. Frances Cook, substitute teacher, became a familiar figure to students at B. H. S. as she filled in during the absence of faculty members.

Social events included the marriage of Miss Claire Sering to Mr. Harold Ritchie, Miss Marcia Schmeiser to Mr. Robert Anderson, and Miss Vera Mason to Mr. Elmer Cress.

The faculty's support in all school activities helped make the year an outstanding one.

THE BACKSTAGE STAFF WAS BUSY

More students, more work seems to be the motto of our friendly and efficient secretary, Mrs. Evelyn McGill, who has just finished her seventh year at Beaverton High School.

Assisting her with such duties as making out absence slips and helping students arrange their schedules is Mrs. Letha Turner, school board clerk and secretary to Mr. Metzler. Information about where to find your best friend, forgotten locker combinations, and lost articles may be secured from these people behind the big desk.

Completion of the new gym, purchase of school busses, enlargement of parking facilities, and purchase of lab tables have been just a few of the problems the school board has met and solved in this busy year of expansion at B. H. S. These progressive men have merited the deep appreciation of both students and faculty.

CAFETERIA CAPTURES INTERMISSION SPOTLIGHT

With the addition of a sixty cubic foot refrigerator, an electric potato peeler, and bake ovens Beaverton's cafeteria became one of well-balanced meals and excellent service.

A line of 125 people can be served in fifteen minutes and the cafeteria is equipped to handle a maximum of 400. The national school lunch program contributes four and one-half cents to each meal to insure the best possible lunch.

Of great popularity was the snack bar which served soft drinks, ice cream and candy under the supervision of Mrs. Luella Day.

The cafeteria staff was capably headed by Mrs. Mary Burkett and Mrs. Olga Schurman. Assisting were Georgia and Jamesetta Burkett, Kristine Nelson, Betty Morris, Joanne Stout, Roberta Martin, Larry Loar, Ed Zurflueh, and Dick Wise.

PROPERTY MEN WORKED

Keeping the school's sixty-four rooms spic and span was the job of John Day, Gene Beighley, Myrle Howell, and Luella Day, custodians. Called upon to do most anything at any time, their jobs varied from waxing floors and cleaning woodwork, to rustling stray dogs and cats.

The job of getting B-Hi's numerous bus riding students to school was performed by bus superintendent James Schurman, Myrle Howell, David Carr, W. B. Irwin, John F. Teller, John Didier, Ralph Stoffer, Carl Larson, and student drivers Doc Hickman, Henry White, Johnny Beovich.

Row 1—Mr. R. Stoffer, C. Larson, W. Irwin, D. Carr, J. Schurman, J. Teller, M. Howell, G. Beighley.

1. When Lt. Vernon Hood reported for duty with the 403rd Troop Carrier Wing, April 1, he was succeeded by Mr. Gerald Baker.

2. Mrs. Duncan puts parents through their "vocal" paces at open house.

3. The Bakkes, Shirley and Arthur, filled the teaching positions vacated by Mrs. Sylvia Gilbert and Lt. jg. Ted Harding.

4. Faculty members assemble in library to complete frosh registration first day of school.

SENIORS STAGE GRAND FINALE

The curtain falls on the class of 1951 leaving a feeling of satisfaction. Since their first year the seniors have been active in the affairs of a growing school.

As freshmen they boasted a student body officer in Roger Murch, pianist; while during their sophomore year a three-year monopoly of the coveted service plaque began.

Underclass skating parties and after game dances prepared the way for the beautiful "Colonial South" prom of the junior year. Lovely Pat Traner was chosen queen of the biennial Spring Reign.

In sports, dynamic Jimmie Tsugawa left an indelible state-wide memory of athletic achievements.

First semester officers were: Bob Senz, president; Jerry Olson, vice-president; Gerry Wills, secretary; Bill Byrd, treasurer; Jerry Howell, reporter; Marjie Keehn, song leader; Richard Seidler, pianist; Bill Miller and Dick Wise, yell leaders.

Serving the second semester were: Pete Lindberg, president; Henry White, vice-president; Joanne Day, secretary; Donald Thomas, treasurer; Carroll Nicholson, reporter; Joan Hall, song leader; Bonnie Cameron, pianist; Geneva Horton, and Dick Wise, yell leaders.

Misses Geraldine Sanford, Amarette Barnes, Bernice Conoly, Mrs. Eleanor Duncan, E. G. Webb, and Gene Freese advised the class.

PRESIDENTS

Congratulating themselves on the Seniors' ability to earn the Service Plaque six times are class Presidents Bob Senz and Pete Lindberg.

OFFICERS (First Semester)

Row 1—Bill Byrd, Dick Wise, Jerry Howell.

Row 2—Bob Senz, Gerry Wills, Marjie Keehn, Jerry Olson.

OFFICERS (Second Semester)

Row 1—Henry White, Peter Lindberg, Donald Thomas.

JUNIORS STEAL THE SHOW

The spotlight focuses on the juniors at the end of a three-year run! The traditional prom, held early in May, was financed by after game dances and hot dog sales.

Making news was Don Fibiger playing in the Junior Civic Theater's production "Hansel and Gretel." Maureen Kain was nominated for De Molay princess. Sharon Drake copped first place in serious declamation at the Linfield's speech tournament while Barry Eastham placed third. Eddie Ramsdell was named to the T. Y. V. All-Star football squad. On the intellectual side—approximately 12% of the juniors received blue cards.

Filling the executives' chairs were Dick Bowman and Gene Nordling with Mel Mori and John Shaffer, vice-presidents. Assuming secretarial duties were Sharon Tippery and Gabe Ghiglietti. Joan Shaffer and Paul Buffam directed finances while Maureen Kain and Curtis Wilson reported class activities. Leading songs were Iva Lee Sledge and Lucie Green with Don Fibiger and Ruby Taylor, pianists. Yell leaders were Shirlee Syverson, Sylvia Wilson, Mel Mori and Janet Marshall.

Mrs. Claire Ritchie, Miss Elaine Hayden, Miss Vera Mason, William See, Melvin Wells, James Barnard, and Ted Van Buren were advisers.

SOPHOMORES KEEP SHOW MOVING

Bit Players? Not the Sophomores! The second year students took their places among their older classmates in assuming many vital Student Body roles.

Job as assistant editor of the Hummer went to versatile Travis Cavens while that of sports reporter was capably filled by Kent Davidson. Rickey Mercer was elected to a position on the yell staff. Bill Sargent and Travis Cavens were ever faithful as student photographers both while clicking the shutter and processing the pictures.

In the area of sports Ralph Holland, Bob Lee, Ernie Zwahlen, and Dale Burger showed promise. Raymond Stacy proved a responsible basketball manager.

Presidential positions were occupied by Ernie Zwahlen and Bill Bruce, while the vice-presidency went to Travis Cavens and Vern Litvin. Jean Parks and Joyce Sullivan filled the secretarial role. Acting in the capacity of treasurer were Jeanette Vail and Dale Burger. Reporting sophomore activities were Carolan Popp and Dick Grant. The music department included Rusty Spores, Janice Hackett, song leaders; and Jean Neher, Marilyn Martin, pianists. Yell leaders were Evelyn Kolstad, Julia Kauffman, Virginia Huddleston and Marlene Douglas.

Mrs. Beth Metzler, Mrs. Sylvia Gilbert, Mrs. Kathryn Ward, Mrs. Marcie Anderson, Duane Moore, and Ted Harding advised the sophomores.

BABIES TAKE A BOW

Fall term opened with a "box office rush" of 275 Frosh! Outstanding among them was Hennok Soot, tow-headed Estonian, who earned a blue card his first semester in an American school.

Diminutive Anita Mori with her swaying pigtails and half-pint Roy Smith startled the towering upper classmen by registering as freshmen. Jolly Ditzler, after a semester in the frosh singing group, lent his mature tenor to the boys' chorus. To climax it all, the frosh basketball team under Coach Duane Moore took top honors in the T. Y. V. League.

President Keith Wismer was succeeded in his office second semester by Charles Shea. Larry Loar and Harry Spence held the vice-presidential positions. Acting as secretaries were Darryl Allyn and Judy Holmes, while Sylvia Kain and Ilene Olson kept the finances. Claiming the reporters' berth were Frank Morrison and Tony Beovich. Marjorie Altenhofen and Ron Kingsley were pianists cooperating with song leaders Elaine Sullivan and Lorraine Rich. Jill Nesse and Jill Meeke were yell leaders.

Advising the class were Mrs. Mollie Stouffer, David Porter, Ed Bader, Mrs. Marjory Whitbeck, Miss Arlene Peterson and Eugene Duncan.

Dramatics

"THE PLAY'S THE THING"

Learning the techniques of the acting world was the newly-created dramatics class under the direction of Mrs. Molly Lou Stouffer.

Pantomimes and monologues were the first ventures the class made into the field of drama. This led to the presentation of such well-performed skits as "Love Will Find a Way," an original story, an impromptu production of "Cinderella" and a most humorous rendition of "How To Propose." At the Christmas assembly the group presented a more serious type of play, "The Town That Couldn't Have Christmas."

The dramatic assembly, presented in March, gave its audience a well-balanced program of humor and drama. Mary Nordstrom's dramatic portrayal in "The Button" was outstanding.

In addition to learning the know-how of acting, the class turned to the writing of plays spring term. With a year of valuable experience behind them, next year's drama outlook is very promising.

(1) Mary Nordstrom's interpretation of "The Button" electrified the students. (2) Rogene Wicher, Jon Barrett and Marilyn Ray caught in "The Town That Couldn't Have Christmas." (3) A crucial moment in "Cinderella." (4) Drama group presented on "How to Propose" to the student body. (5) "Cinderella" La Velle Flannery dances with Prince Charming Jim Delameter. Persistent step-sister finds the shoe doesn't fit. (6) Barry Eastham, Nancy Stuthard, Ardyth Johnson, Georgia Burkett, Vanda Benson, and Larry Bunnell caught preparing for the act.

Mr. Wells and his drivers' training girls prepare to "hit the road."

Jim explains mathematical solids to Carol, Florence, and Bill.

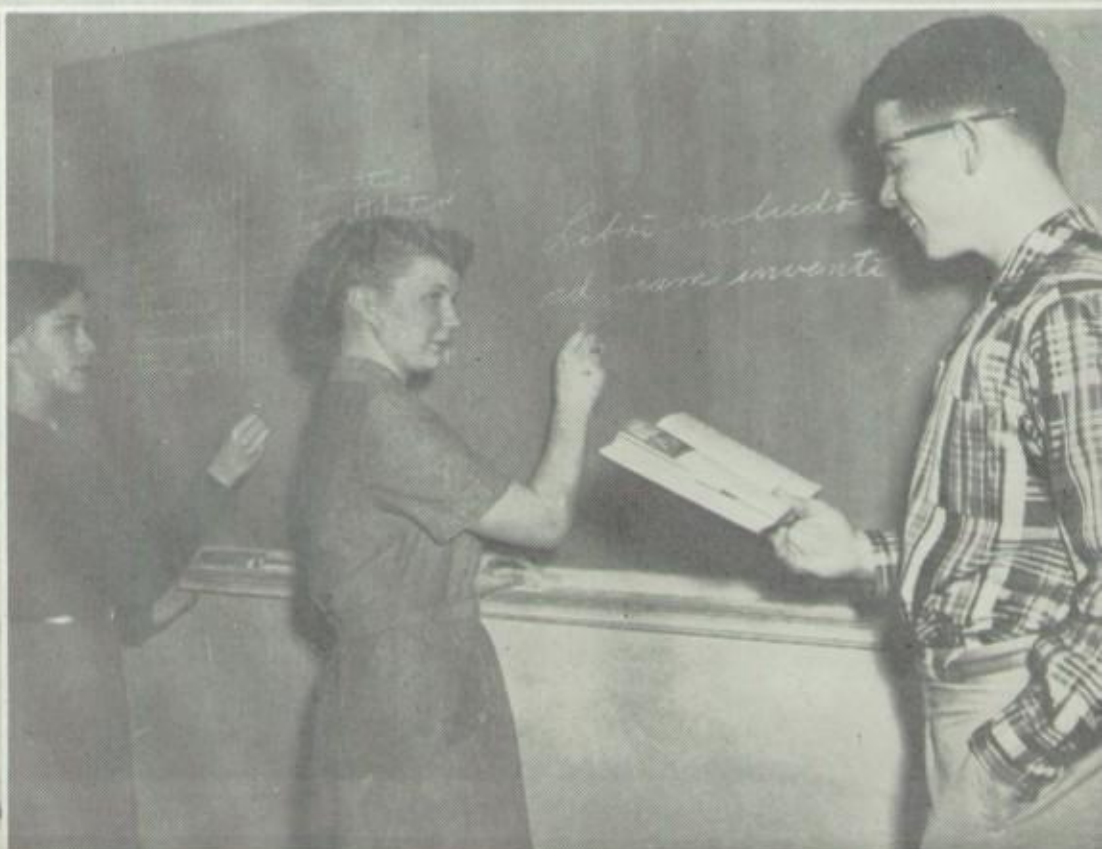

B-Hi budding young artists "dabble in ceramics."

ALL THE WORLD'S A STAGE . . .

ACCORDING to Noah Webster a stage is "the platform on which the actors perform; also the scene of any action." The stage of the school is the classroom, where a student spends six hours a day, five days a week for nine months out of the year. This means that before one graduates from high school, he has spent well over four thousand seven hundred hours in a classroom. It would be impossible to show the whole day, even in one hundred pages. In these few pages, the Beaver staff has tried to show a cross section of the action of the school.

Spanish students inspect and take notes of Spanish pictorial maps.

BOYS' GLEE RATES THIRTY MEMBERS

Beaverton high school music department is very fortunate to have within it an excellent boys' glee club composed of thirty boys. This organization is under the direction of Melvin B. Wells. They have given the student body many fine programs and have taken part in many community events.

The boys' octette was composed of Ray De Young, Bob Senz, Melvin Mori, Ron Young, Don Dimick, Tim Clark, Craig Averitt, and Ron Rohde. The glee club and the octette were represented in the annual music tournament held at Hillsboro in April.

CHOIR

The choir under the direction of Mrs. Duncan sang in assemblies and both the Christmas and the Spring Concerts. Plans were made for a three-school music festival consisting of Hillsboro, Forest Grove, and Beaverton. Attending a concert in Portland by the Portland Symphony Orchestra was another of their many activities. The first semester officers: Pat Traner, president; Dreenali Zwahlen, vice-president; Roberta Pointer, secretary; Joyce Sullivan, librarian, and the second semester officers: Ron Rohde, president; Mel Mori, vice-president; Dreenali Zwahlen, Ruby Taylor, and Dick Wise, librarians, were in charge of the noon dances held in the Little Theater Tuesdays and Thursdays. The proceeds of the dances went toward robes.

GIRLS' GLEE PRESENT FINE ENTERTAINMENT

Nineteen fifty will be remembered as one of the most enjoyable for the audiences of the girls' glee club.

The club presented a special assembly in February and to the delight of all those attending, sang many songs from "South Pacific." To enliven the program, the girls gave their rendition of how three different groups of people would interpret the song "Bali Hai." Among other notable performances were the Y-Teen Thanksgiving program, the Christmas Concert and the main highlight of the year, the Spring Concert presented on April 27.

The girls' glee club consisting of approximately forty members is capably directed by Mrs. Eleanor Duncan. One of the most welcomed surprises for the glee club this year was the completion of the Little Theater which made possible the first room large enough for rehearsal. The Theater also boasts a spanking new spinet piano.

Beaverton again participated in the annual District Music Tournament at Newberg, where they competed with various schools in the surrounding area and made a fine showing as in previous years.

FRESHMAN CHORUS

Row 1—S. Barnes, D. Allen, R. Graves, D. Weaver, J. Prouty, D. Allyn, S. Larson, R. Stone, R. Law, J. Slaughter, M. Krueger.

Row 2—J. Holmes, M. Gregory, M. Ferry, E. Sanders, B. Young, J. Ditzler, R. Kingsley, M. Cacia, B. Slattery, R. Kriek, G. Forrest.

FRESHMEN ARE INITIATED IN SONG

Learning the know-how of group singing, under the direction of Mrs. Eleanor Duncan, were the forty-two freshmen chorus members. In addition to singing, the class studied music theory, general music, and the art of music appreciation.

The activities of the chorus included participation in the Spring and Christmas Concerts. Jolly Ditzler took the solo role in both of these performances. Talent shows in which freshmen chorus members performed were held in class every two weeks.

The original number of members dwindled during the year as some freshmen were promoted to the choir.

Boys Octette—Bob Senz, Ray De Young, Mel Mori, Ronald Young, Don Dimick, Tim Clark, Ron Rohde, Craig Averitt, Mr. Wells.

Girls' Triple Trio — Bertie Pointer, Betty McBride, Ilene Boge, Pat Peden, Sue Carpenter, Helen McIntosh, Joanne Hiller.
Seated—Beverly Besmehn.

Drum majorettes, Carolan Popp and Dorothy Eddy, go into a snappy routine.

THE MUSICAL SCORE WAS SPIRITED

Synonymous with the word "spirit" at Beaverton high school is its thirty-eight piece band, directed by Melvin B. Wells. To produce that boundless enthusiasm in assembly nothing is more essential than Beaverton's band.

Its numerous engagements included playing in the 1950 Rose Festival parade and at the Christmas party for crippled children at the Civic Auditorium. The band's annual concert, presented in February, was one of its outstanding achievements.

The officers were: Ed Zurflueh, student director; Travis Cavens, librarian; and Roy Childs, manager.

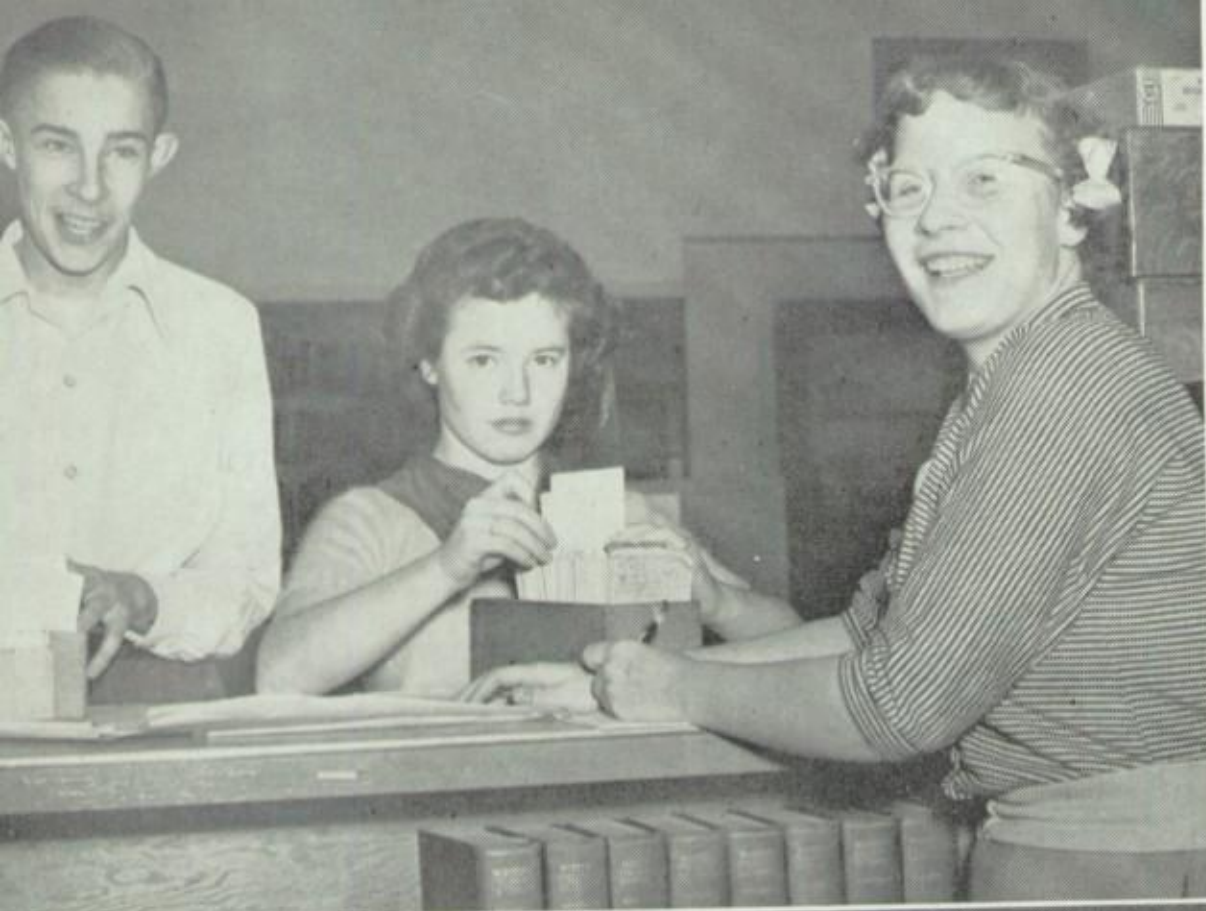

With five years experience in the art of baton twirling, Dorothy Eddy and Carolyn Popp have provided much color and entertainment. In addition the two drum majorettes played mellophones in the band.

Dorothy represented Beaverton at the Elk sponsored Willamette Valley Twirling contest in which she placed fifth and as a prize received a new baton. The girls' new black and gold uniforms add sparkle to their performances.

THEIR JOBS ARE MANY

Twelve students aid Mrs. Whitbeck in the library. Assisting other students in finding information, cleaning the shelves, and keeping the books straightened are among their duties. They also file cards and write out overdue slips.

A special service the library staff offered this year was the ordering and scheduling of films for class room use.

If the room appeared to be bulging at the seams it was probably due to interested students viewing exhibits from the various departments.

Larry, Roberta and Phyllis, assistant librarians, file library cards and make out overdue slips.

A group of able student-librarians "bone up" on statistics in order to better help inquiring students.

Librarians relax with a noon-time coke: Roberta Martin, Larry Bunnell, Sally Lindsay, Joanne Springer, Leonard Schlottmann, Bob Barton, Carol Huth, Dianne Schendel, Mrs. Whitbeck, Donna Jackson, Joanne Hiller. Not sharing cokes are Phyllis Palmrose and Siegrid Koch.

SPEECH STUDENTS COP THE CUPS

Speech students under the direction of E. G. Webb, veteran coach, captured 6 first places in interscholastic competition this year.

Participating in tournaments at Linfield College, Willamette University, and the district speech tournament held at McMinnville, the talk artists gave a good account of themselves. Award winners this year were Georgia Burkett, Barry Eastham, Bob Ervin, Sharon Drake, Sandra Williams, Dick Hall, and Diane Schendel.

Those qualifying for the state tournament were Dick Hall, panel discussion; Diane Schendel, oratory; Georgia Burkett, poetry reading and Bob Ervin, after-dinner speaking.

Mr. Webb's big four debate team in the advance speech department, considered by all the best in its class.

Arthur Carpenter surprised everyone with his ability for oratory. He participated in the American Legion sponsored contest in Portland.

This is the winner's circle and on the right is the trainer who managed to put this many of his students in first or second place positions.

ANNUAL STAFF

Standing—Doc Hickman, Kenny Alexander, Craig Knutson.

Business Manager Ray De Young was assisted by Joan Hall and Jerry Howell.

Phyllis Palmrose and Joanne Day, assistant editors and Tim Clark, sports editor assist Pat Hanley, editor.

WE'RE ALL IN IT; THE BEAVER THAT IS

"I'm in it; you're in it; we're all in it," was the motto of the 1951 Beaver staff.

Starting off the campaign of selling annuals this year, the staff presented their annual assembly which was called "Truth or Annualquences" with Craig Knutson as master of ceremonies.

The Journalism Conference at the University of Oregon gave the Beaver staff new ideas to add to their book.

The Beaver staff is grateful to the entire Student Body and faculty for their cooperation and a special thanks to the photography classes.

Heading the staff this year was Pat Hanley with Phyllis Palmrose and Joanne Day as assistant editors, Ray DeYoung, business manager, with Joan Hall and Jerry Howell as assistants. Other members of the staff were Arlene Murphy, George Pappas, Adair Enger, Audrey Enger, Kenneth Alexander, Beverly Johnson, Gloria Rawles, Joanne Ferguson, Craig Knutson, Tim Clark and Lavelle Flannery.

Mrs. Claire Ritchie and Miss Bernice Conoly were advisors.

Vol. 29, No. 7 Beaverton High School, Beaverton, Oregon

Tuesday, March 27, 1951

$500,000 BOND ELECTION TODAY

The present third floor should be removed because of fire and earthquake hazards, explains Mr. Metzler. However, improvements have been made. There will be no bond retirement until when the first call will be made. A tax will have to be paid to cover interest following 10 years, a $50,000 bond will be issued.

Beaverton's enrollment has soared tremendously in recent years and is continuing at a fast rate, making additional classrooms necessary.

Spring Concert To Be April 27

Spring Brings Activities To Y-Teens

SMALL STAFF HANDLES BIG PRODUCTION

Behind the door of room 305, The Hummer staff wrote and edited a paper each month.

The staff, unusually small, received much outside help from the beginning journalism class, Mrs. Elliott's office practice class, and from students who volunteered their help.

Delegates were sent to the Oregon Scholastic Press Association conference in October and to the Pacific Slope Press Association conference in February.

As members of the T. Y. V. Press club, the "Hummerites" were host to the other journalism classes of the League. Editor Richard Larsen served as vice-president of the Press club.

To enable their putting out an extra issue of the Hummer, the staff sponsored a noon-time serial, "The Valley of Vanishing Men."

Richard Larsen, editor, was assisted in the second semester by Travis Cavens. Phyllis Palmrose and Bill Brant served as business managers for the first and second semesters, respectively.

The staff was advised by Miss Amarette Barnes.

Announced for Prom

It will be the date of the prom, promoted by the prom committee and the senior class.

There is hope that they will be stationed at Portland Air Base, although the destination is unknown.

Calls to active duty came also to Homer Spear, Jack O'Connor, Frank Kingsbury, and Dave Buf-

Guard to Claim Four Seniors

On May 1 the 14th Air National Guard will claim four senior boys for active duty.

Ken Anderson, George Pappas, Jerry Howell, and Tim Clark, seniors, will be called to active duty.

After four years of high school, we'll miss graduation by 24 days.

The boys will serve in the Air Guard Warning division for a period of 24 months to 30 years.

There is hope that they will be stationed at Portland Air Base, although the destination is unknown.

Calls to active duty came also to Homer Spear, Jack O'Connor, Frank Kingsbury, and Dave Buf-

JIM DIRECTS FALL PRODUCTION

Wielding the gavel fall semester for the Student Body was popular, energetic Jim Tsugawa. As his vice-president, Jim had Paul Strandberg, who was of great assistance in planning the assemblies. Other officers were: Anita Ghiglietti, secretary; Gottfried Kraut-scheid, treasurer; Mary Jo Cornell, reporter; Dean Leverett, student body manager.

With the aid of the organizations, Jim and his assistants presented many excellent programs. One of the outstanding was the assembly presented by Panamero, a newly organized group composed of students studying the Spanish language. Also to be remembered was the Y-Teen Thanksgiving program, the Christmas festivities sponsored by Torch Honor, and the wonderful spirit that pervaded.

ROGER EMCEES SPRING HITS

Presiding over the Student Body affairs during the second semester was 6-foot 3-inch Roger Murch. Assisting him as secretary was the little girl with the big book, 4-foot 11-inch Jannette Nelson. Roger's responsibilities were many, but with the help of Bill Byrd, vice-president, the task at hand was an easy one.

Memories of the second semester that will linger are Roger's wit and polished manner, the clever numbers presented by the girls' glee club and choir under Mrs. Duncan's direction, the "Annualquences" program emceed by Craig Knutsen, and the March of Dimes Competition in which the seniors captured the service plaque for the sixth time.

Supporting Roger were: Kent Davidson, reporter; Jim McKnight, student body manager; Dick Bowman, assistant treasurer.

THE SCENE CALLED SERVICE

Sparked by president Ellen Smith, the energetic Y-Teens planned and completed a year's program filled with many charitable projects and worthwhile services.

The club's many activities included the sending of a radio phonograph to the Fairview home, a candy bar drive for children in Europe, and numerous service undertakings for the school.

Officers were Ellen Smith, president; Barbara Hemrich, vice-president; Joanne Kramer, secretary; Leila Reed, treasurer; Mrs. Marjory Whitbeck and Mrs. Dorothy Wippel were advisors.

THE SPIRIT THAT NEVER DIES

WITH a jump, a twirl and a note of music, the 1950-51 song and yell staff announced itself to the B-Hi student body. Unbelievable as it may seem, the sparks of pep and music continued their vigorous spirit-provoking antics right up to the last baseball game in the spring.

The song staff consisted of David Island and Don Fibiger, first and second semester pianists respectively, and Jo Ann Kramer, song leader, whose effervescent personality, unerring sense of rhythm, and bubbly wit enabled her to hold office for two consecutive semesters.

Yell Leaders Bertie Pointer, Daryl Emerick, Ray Senn, Rick Mercer, and Sally Lindsay helped to inspire spirit with their activeness.

The yell leaders could always be counted on to be the first ones up when the athletes made their appearance and the last ones to cease yelling when the game was over. The group's activities were ably directed by Bertie Pointer, Yell Queen first semester and Ray Senn, Yell King second semester.

The Rally Squad acted as a quartet of girls Fridays to the other two groups. Although only in its second year of activity, the Squad proved its worth by its ability and dependableness and by lending color and variety to the yell section.

First semester president, Jo Cornell, tries her pep club hat on her successor, June Myers.

THE SPIRIT THAT PERVADES ALL

FOLLOWING close in the footsteps of the yell staff, the Pep Club came bursting out with enthusiasm. The girls, with their bubbling spirit at every game could not help but infect every rooter present. Because of this ever-present pep our rooting section was one of the very best in Beaverton's history.

The Pep Club was led first semester by Mary Jo Cornell. Assisting her were vice-president Karen Kraft and secretary-treasurer Jo Krueger. Under Mary Jo's supervision they sponsored a dance in the cafeteria after a football game.

A request for school songs could always be answered by the ever-ready song staff consisting of Don Fibiger, second semester pianist, Jo Anne Kramer, song leader both semesters, and David Island, first semester pianist.

J. Hall, J. Kaufman, J. Parks, D. Gray, J. Hiller, V. Benson, J. Kraft, D. Zwahlen, B. Larson, J. Sullivan, S. Syverson, J. Nelson.

The election of officers for the second semester revealed June Myers as president; Joanne Ferguson, vice-president; and Joanne Kraft, secretary-treasurer.

Adding to the school spirit of assemblies the Pep Club came through with a pep stunt every Friday. Providing the yell staff with a rhythmical background the girls cleverly worked out new steps.

Very aptly advising the Pep Club this year was Mrs. Eleanor Duncan.

NEW ACTIVITIES IN G. A. A. PROGRAM

Sports parties in bowling, ice skating, roller skating, swimming and volleyball provided not only amusement, but essential service points for G. A. A. members.

President Kathleen Kennish was assisted by Mona Lee Gosselin, vice-president, in planning the various programs. Gabe Ghiglietti was secretary; Lorraine served as treasurer; and the important job of sports manager was held by June Steele.

The club, which is open to every girl in school, had a booming membership of 165 in 1950-51.

The club was divided into twelve groups, each under the direction of a squad leader. The twelve squad leaders are Kay Bader, Marilyn Thompson, Joan Hamilton, Bertie Pointer, Nancy Shortridge, Joanne Ferguson, Pat Schlaht, Lucille Wright, LaVonne Hiller, Shirley Van Hyning, and Marcian Kuhn.

Squads took on various duties such as selling tickets for the Halloween dance and for the various skating parties.

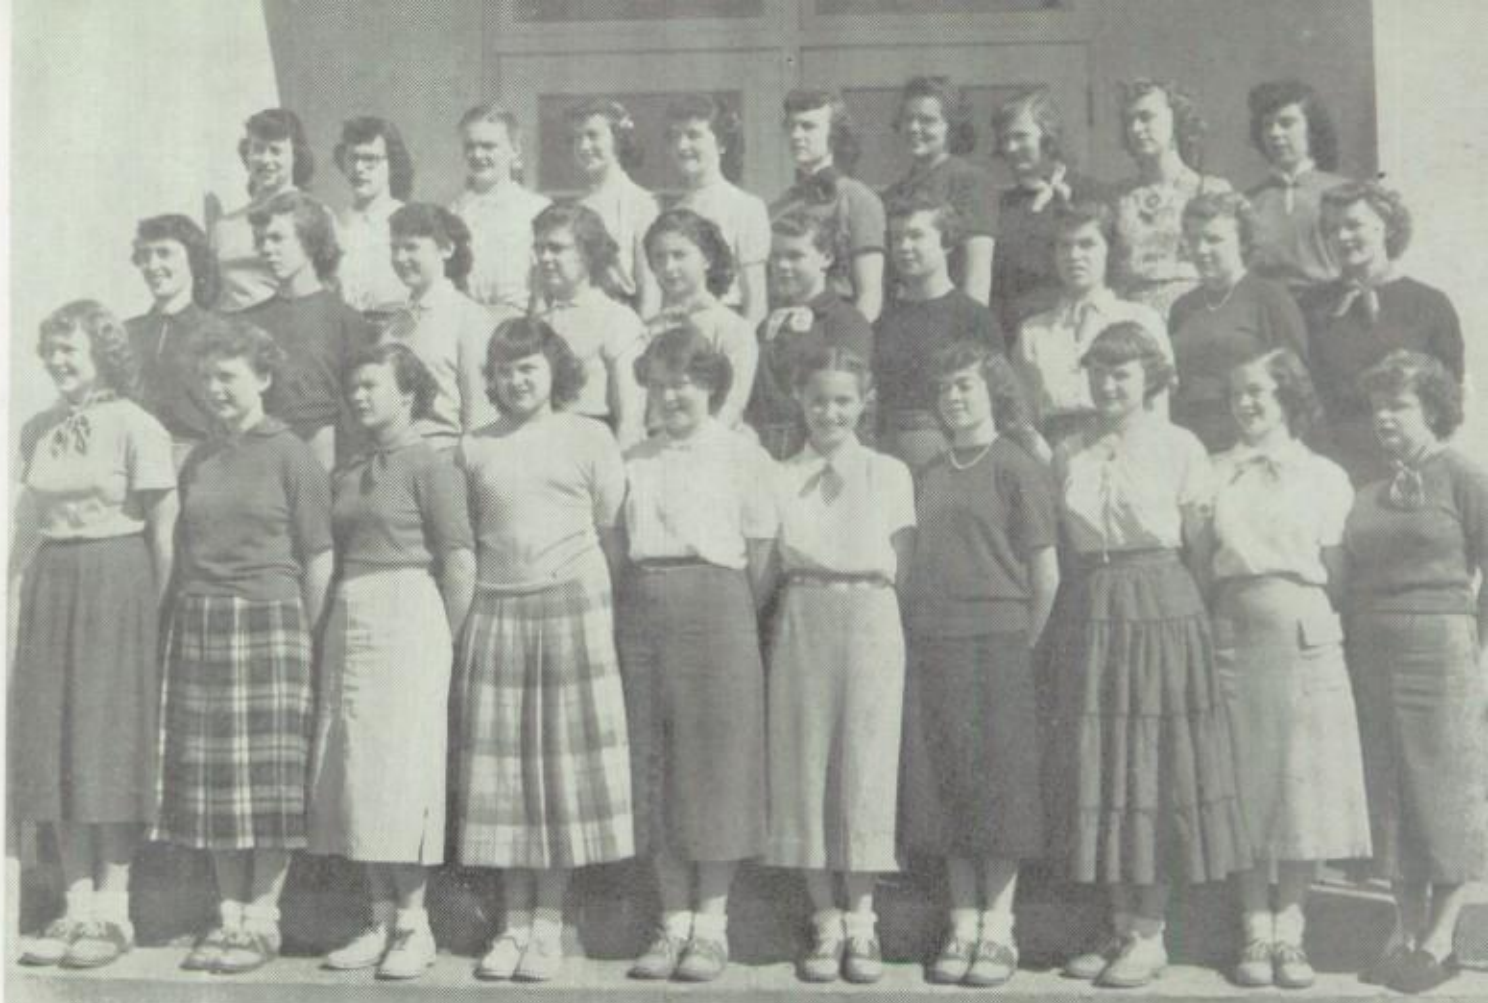

Advisors were Miss Elaine Hayden, Mrs. Sylvia Gilbert, and Mrs. Marjorie Whitbeck.

First semester president, Bill Byrd, and second semester president, Paul Strandberg, discuss plans for the Hi-Y's future activities.

HI-Y EMPHASIZES CHRISTIAN CHARACTER

"To create, maintain, and extend throughout school and community high standards of Christian character."

Through their creed the boys of the Hi-Y have expressed in words the purpose carried out by their activities.

Attending church in a body every fourth Sunday and sponsoring a well-received Easter assembly were two of the group activities.

The boys swam every second Tuesday of the month at the Portland Y. M. C. A. and held a night meeting each month.

New members were inducted at a formal initiation with all schools of the area.

Officers for the first semester were: Bill Byrd, president; Barry Hoaglin, vice-president; Jim McKnight, secretary.

Serving the second half of the year were Paul Strandberg, president; Ed Zurflueh, vice-president; and Bob Speer, secretary.

Vernon Hood was the club's advisor.

FIRE SQUAD FEATURES FASHIONS

Supervising during fire drills, and keeping halls, cafeteria and gym free of waste paper are the duties of the Fire Squad.

Record time for emptying the building during a fire drill was one minute, twenty-five seconds.

Highlight of the Squad's activities was their annual assembly, in which new members were inducted. This year's assembly will long be remembered for its "Fashion Show."

Leading the boys was Jim Tsugawa, chief, assisted by Bill Byrd, lieutenant-secretary; and captains, Tim Clark, Glenn Pointer, Jim McKnight, Ray Senn, and Ed Clemens.

TORCH HONOR "SMARTIES" GO LEGAL

Adoption of its first constitution patterned after those set up by the Seattle schools, was the headline news from Torch Honor circles.

Committees were chosen to decorate the rooms for Christmas and to help plan the Christmas assembly which featured a three-act play presented by the drama class.

The "blue carders" sponsored the movie, "Mother Was a Freshman" with the student council to help raise money.

The annual "smarty party" was in the form of a picnic held in the spring. Plenty of good food helped to make it an affair that will be remembered.

JUNIOR RED CROSS PLAYS BENEFACTOR ROLE

Assembling an album giving an accurate description of the daily life of an average Beaverton student was only one of the numerous activities in which the Junior Red Cross council engaged this year. The group, always active, began in the fall by attending a conference in Longview, Wash.

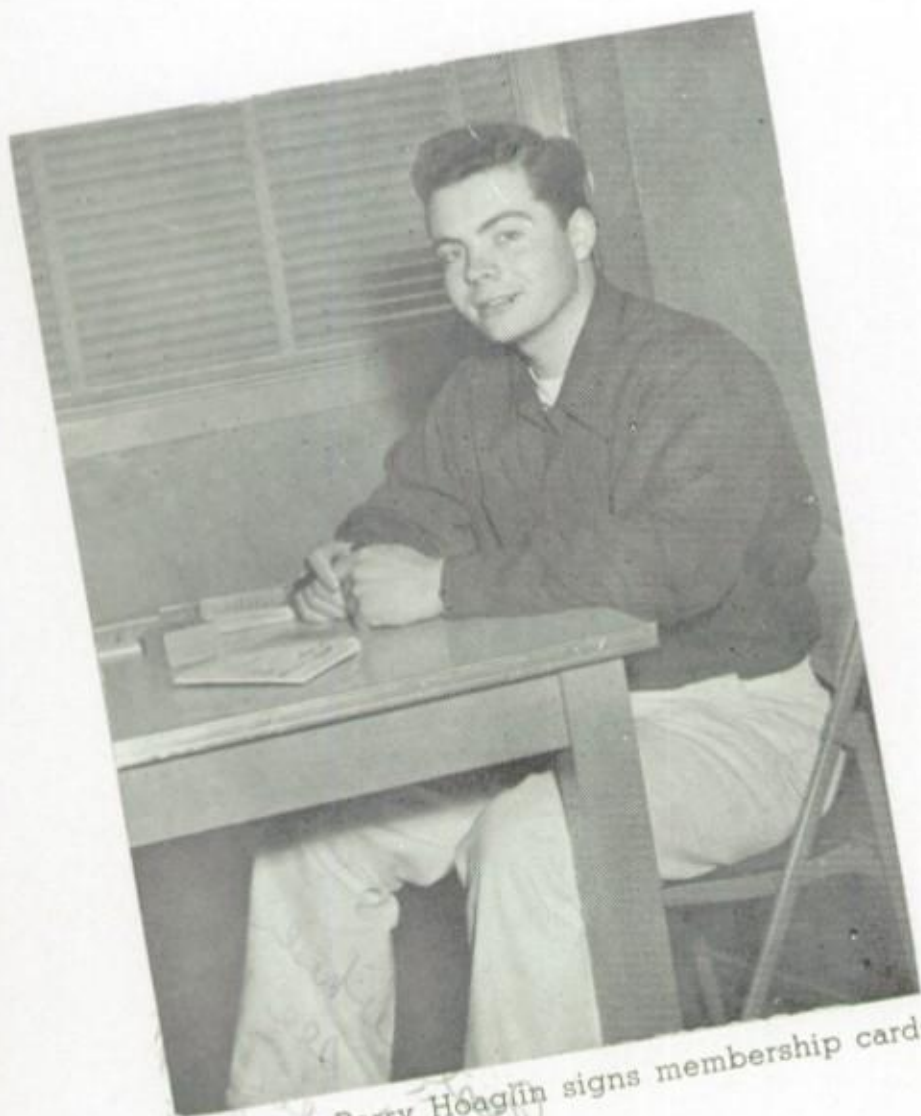

One of the main social events of the year was the annual Sadie Hawkins dance sponsored by Junior Red Cross.

The club sent fifty dollars to CARE, and its members worked diligently to prepare boxes for people in Europe. Making Christmas decorations for hospitals was another project. Amazing as it may seem, the council made its necessary funds for these activities by merely selling Beaver decals.

Capably leading the group were Jo Krueger, president; Julia Ghiglietti, secretary; Sharon Tippet, treasurer.

Advisor to Junior Red Cross was Mrs. Beth Metzler.

DRIVERS' CLUB ROLLS ON

To promote safety among high school drivers is the purpose of the Drivers' Club.

With a membership of approximately 85 boys, the club started its safety program by assisting in the parking of cars at the football games.

The assembly which they sponsored added much to their campaign. Guest speaker was Paul Boeckli, former student body president and a member of the Portland police department. Officer Boeckli tested the reaction time of several students.

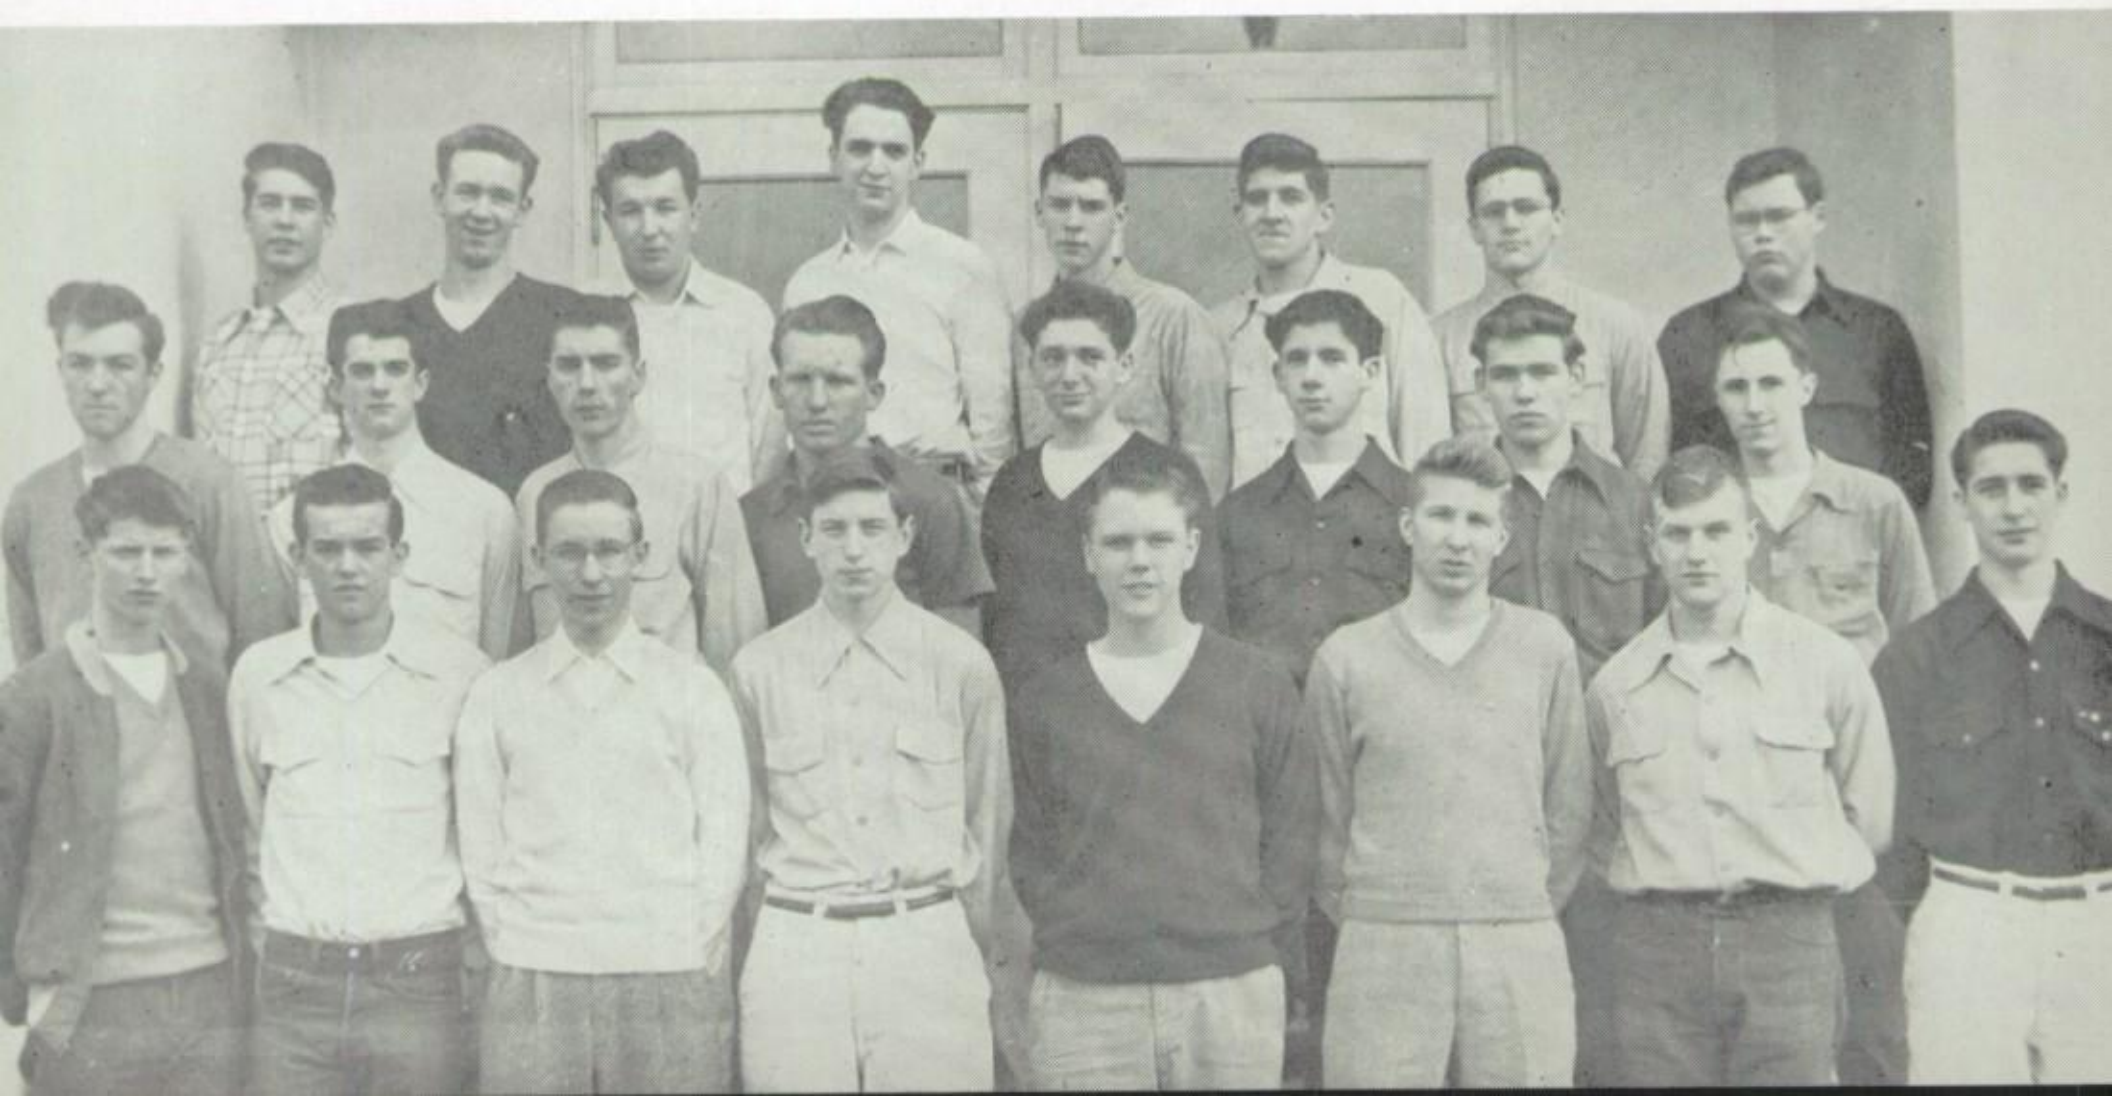

A motion picture "And Then There Were Four" showed dramatically the need for safe driving.

Leading the group were Barry Hoaglin, president; Dick Wise, vice-president, and Ed Zurflueh, secretary-treasurer.

WINGED B PLANS SERVICE PROJECTS

With the election of Ed Clemens as president, Winged B was reorganized and activated. Present plans include various service projects in connection with sports events. Other officers were: Ed Zurflueh, vice-president, and Ray De Young, secretary.

ASSEMBLIES

1. Second semester prexy, Roger Murch, accepts the gavel from his predecessor, Jim Tsugawa.
2. Fold in one-fourth of Craig Knutsen's wit, one-eighth portion George Pappas' humor, stir well and you come up with a very befuddled David Porter, much to the amusement of the audience at the Annual Staff assembly.
3. Hoot'l'hollar girls perform for the student body.
4. Ray brings a toy as admission to the toy drive assembly.
5. Annual staff puts on skit to promote the sales of football programs.
6. B-Hi's beloved Jim receives a remembrance from devoted football team members.
7. B-Hi students went all out in contributing toys to the annual toy drive.
8. Emcee, Bill Byrd, gives the bird to Billie Howell at the turkey raffle.

1. "Swing your partners, promenade all," was the call responded to by everyone at the fun packed Sadie Hawkins dance.

2. Another glimpse of an after game dance.

3. Everybody had fun at the Y-Teen sponsored dance after the Tigard football game.

4. Mona, Don, and Ken help choose some "definitely dancable" records.

5. Beaverton students turn out in full force to dancing classes conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Burch.

1. One, two, three, kick, everyone enjoyed the Conga line at the Y-Teen football dance.
2. The "Roaring Twenties" live again in JoAnn and Don's version of the Charleston.
3. In our new little theater, the students enjoy themselves at a noon dance, sponsored by the choir.
4. Roberta and Bob take the floor to show the others what jitterbugging is really like.
5. Goblins and ghouls added to the exciting fun of the GAA sponsored hallowe'en dance.
6. Sharon and Henry won first prize as the most typically dressed Dog Patchers at the Sadie Hawkins day dance.

B.H.S. WILL MISS ITS STAR

In his final year at Beaverton, Jim Tsugawa had one of the most brilliant seasons of his career.

He led the T. Y. V. League in scoring, and, in addition to being Beaver captain and T. Y. V. captain, he was selected to play in the annual Shriner all-star game.

The fame Jim has acquired through his athletic brilliance has not been confined to Beaverton High, but has spread over the league and the state.

Jim skirts end for TD.

GRID TEAM COMPLETES WINNING SEASON

With more prowess and spirit than in previous years the 1950 Beaver football squad emerged from a tough nine-game schedule with a record of 7 wins to 2 losses.

Although losing heart-breakers to bitter rivals, Hillsboro and Oregon City, the team ran up such scores as a 55-0 lacing to inept Forest Grove.

The discovery and development of players Ed Ramsdell, Deane Leverett, Ernie Zwahlen, Dick Bowman, Chuck Holland and Mel Henson helped the Beavers to their stellar position in the T. Y. V. League.

There will be many veterans back next year so the coaching staff is looking forward to a victorious season that will end with a 9-0 record instead of 7-2.

JV'S RECORD FORETELLS BRIGHT FUTURE

The Beaver football team's last line of defense, the Baby Beavers, renewed efforts with a will this fall and developed into a well-rounded eleven before the end of the season.

The B squad can attribute some of its success to such players as Larry Loar and Ron Mercer, who performed in a well-rounded backfield and Mel Henson, Bob Rasmussen and Bill Tri, who showed a good line game.

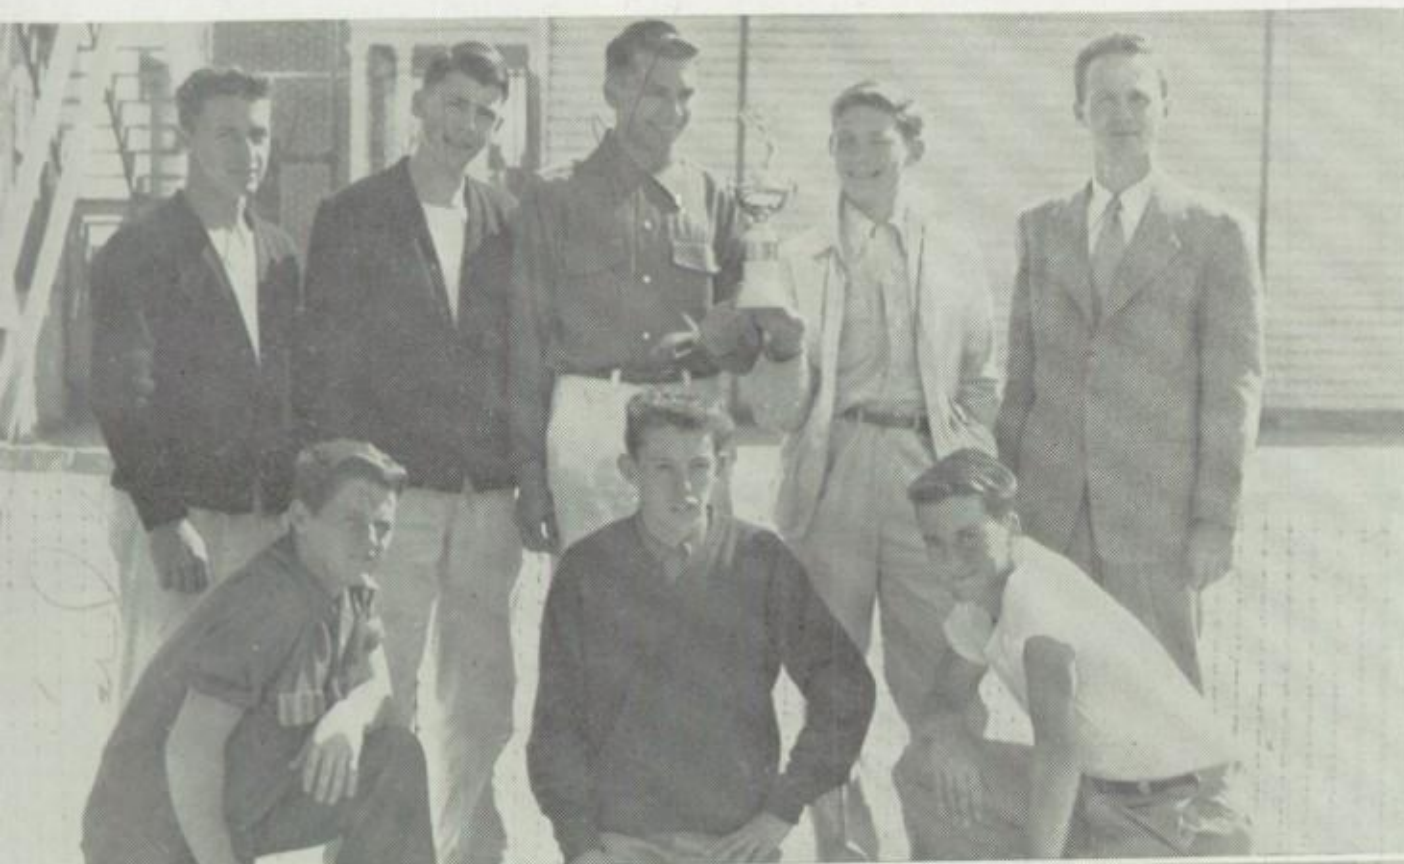

Ending the season with a record of 3 wins and 3 losses, the J.V.'s showed an inclination of power in almost all of its contests, which included a 34-0 win over Forest Grove.

Row 2—D. Steele, R. Drake, D. Drake, R. Hunt, Coach See.

THE RACKET GROUP WINS MANY

Tennis stepped into the limelight this year and produced one of the better showings of minor sports in Beaverton High. Although losing some of his better players by graduation, Coach Bill See was determined to mold a good team and came up with a few better than average players. Among these were transfer Dick Drake and his brother Don, who were instrumental in many of the team's successes.

Lettermen were: Charles Coslett, Dan Steele, Bill Byrd, Dick Drake, Bob Drake, Bob Hunt, and John Comer.

BULL'S EYE IS THE GOAL

With a club membership of twenty boys, the Beaverton high Rifle club set forth this year with the purpose of providing interesting material and instruction for the boys who are marksmanship fans.

Competition matches were held this year with the Hill Rifle club and various National Guard companies.

The Club practices at the Hillsboro rifle range and is proud of its many fine marksmanship awards won through the diligent practice of its members.

Members who are lettermen are: Ron Renner, Gene Walters, Arvid Matson, and Howard Grabhorn.

BEAVERS DARKHORSE IN TOURNEY PLAY

A SLOW start and a blazing finish marked the league efforts of the 1951 Beaver varsity basketball squad. Coached by capable Ted Harding, the team completed the prescribed T. Y. V. schedule with a record of 4 wins against 10 losses. Among these wins was a 56-55 overtime upset of the West Linn Lions on our home floor.

Co-captains Bill Bernhardt and Ed Zurflueh proved to be the stalwarts of this year's aggregation. Ed ended regulation T. Y. V. play with an average of 11.6 points per game and was ninth in league scoring.

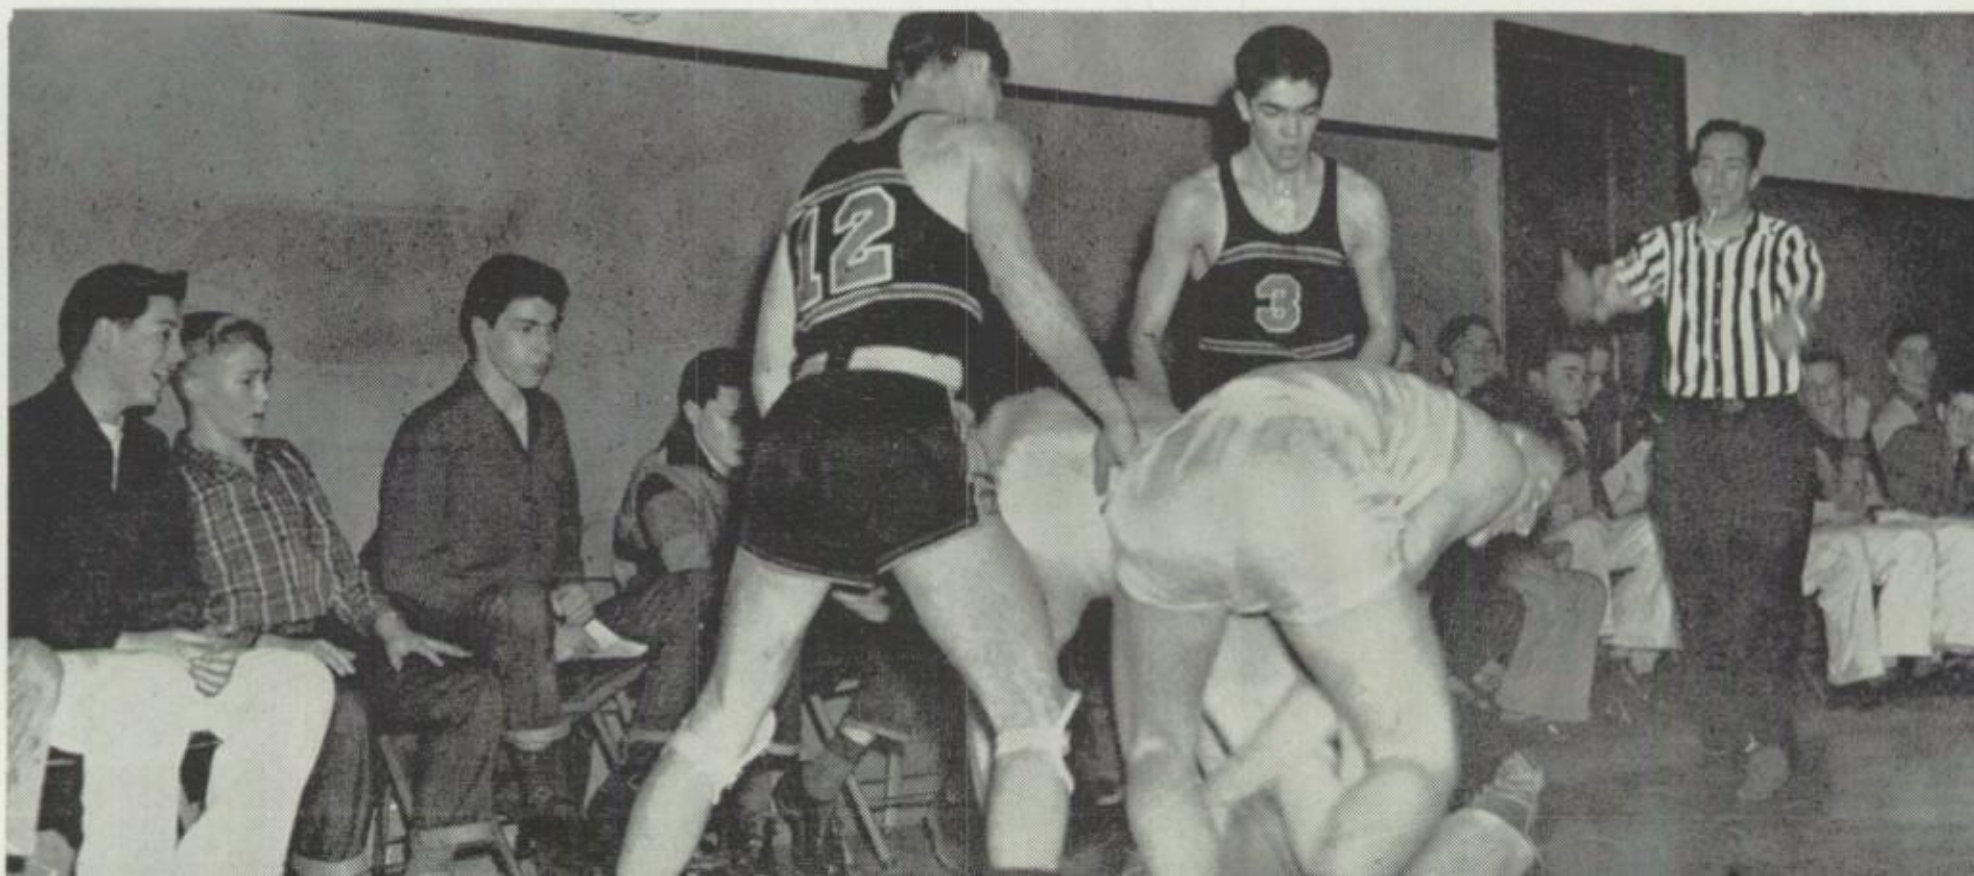

Bill set up many of the plays and contributed much to floor game of the Beavers. Although not always scoring proficiently, Bill was top man in rebounds and time and time again broke up an opponent's scoring drive.

The Beavers entered the District 9-A basketball tournament rated as the team most quickly to be ousted from competition. With Hil-High and Forest Grove rated as favorites, the Beavers beat Tigard 40-38, outclassed Forest Grove 44-36, but lost, however, to Hillsboro, 42-41. The team went on again to defeat Forest Grove 57-47 and the chance to go to the state tournament seemed in the offing with the defeat of Hillsboro the only stumbling block. The two-game series with Hillsboro resulted in one win and one loss which sent Hillsboro to state. Although losing the state tourney berth, Beaverton showed a highly skilled team throughout the play-offs.

THE BALL WAS IN THE AIR

Action-packed scenes like the one below added excitement and thrills to this year's basketball season.

JUNIOR B-MEN PROMISE BRIGHT FUTURE

A season's record of 9 wins against 5 losses, produced a .636 percentage for this year's B-squad. High scorers were Bob Lee with 129 and Dick Bowman with 117.

Hoop mentor Ted Harding is placing his hopes on these players since 1951 will take its toll in graduation of varsity stalwarts. "Gene" Freese coached the J-Vs.

FROSH FIVE TAKE FIRST PENNANT

Displaying sound basketball sense, Frosh Coach Duane Moore guided his boys to a 13-1 win record and the first league championship in B. H. S. freshman history.

This year's rook squad showed an admirable ability to work as a unit and at the same time to deliver scoring punch.

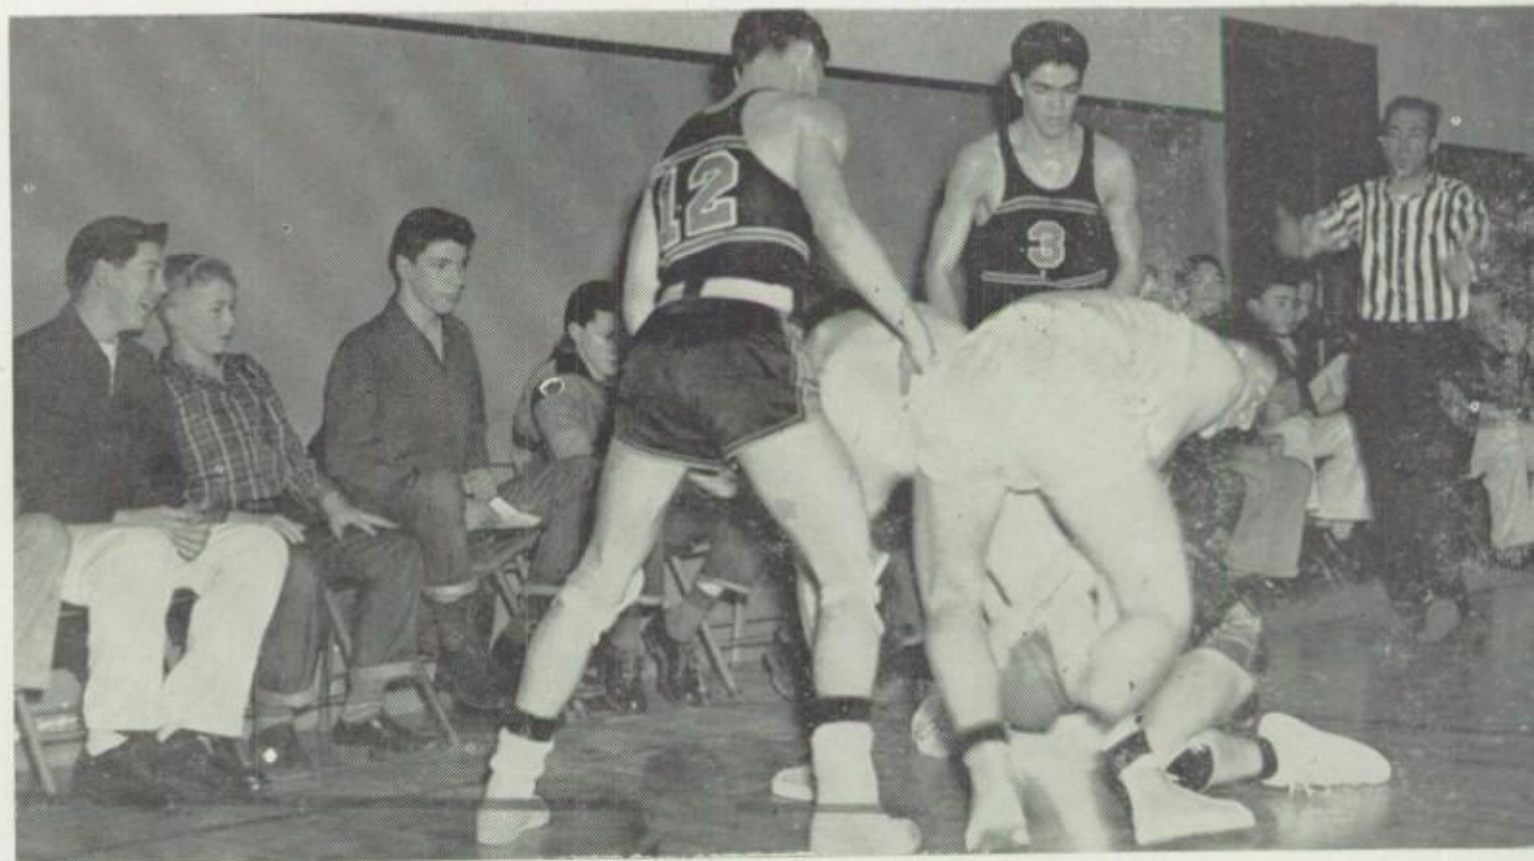

One, two, three push seems to be a fitting theme for this picture.

"Professional" basketball players show amazing talent in half-time ball game.

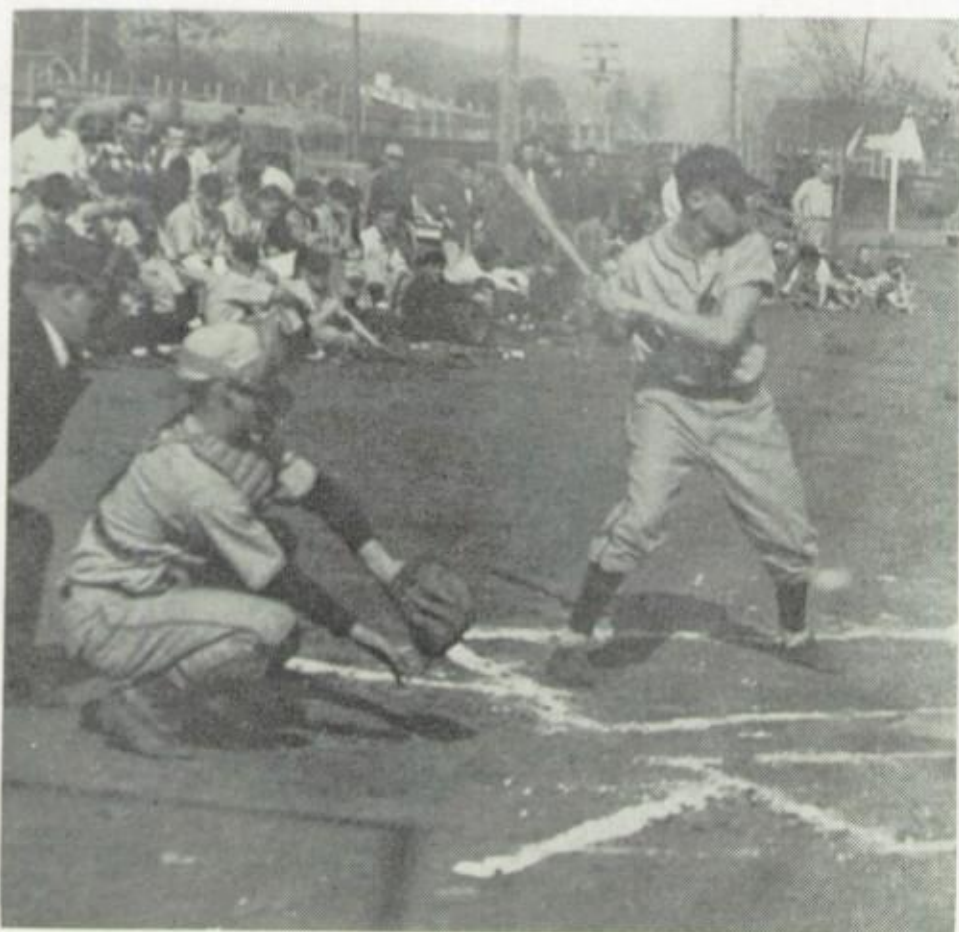

"Hey, one at a time, fellows," yells Beaverton ball players from underneath the pile.

This time everyone yelled with all their might—almost.

Beaver Baseballers Play Rough Schedule

Rounding into form late in the season because of the usual hindrances of not having a home field and being held up by the rain when they did get a chance to practice, the 1950 Beavers won three straight to end a string of eight defeats in a row.

Bad luck plagued the home clan throughout the season. In the McMinnville game on their home field they were beaten in the last inning after supporting a marvelous no-hit performance by stellar flinger Norman Haines. But the boys proved their Beaverton spirit by overcoming these difficulties in the latter stages of the league race.

FISTS ARE FLYING

A full-time coach and ample space for workouts should spell more and better boxing exhibitions for the fisticuff fans in and around Beaverton this year.

Promising sluggers are Jim McKnight, who did very well last year and Bob (Slugger) Barton; both are in the middle-weight division.

PUTT EXPERTS TEE-OFF

Led by top scorers Barry Ott and Roger Murch, BHS golfers played a series of matches with Salem High School, losing at the Salem Country Club and winning a return match at Portland Golf Club.

Becoming better organized after a lack of interest in golf for the past few years, the club, coached by Gene Duncan, played additional matches among themselves for top place in club standings, with the top position being held by Barry Ott.

Lettermen are: Barry Ott, Roger Murch, Lee Zumwalt, Bill Winters, and Dick Fraley.

BEVO HARRIERS END SEASON UNDEFEATED

Under the tutorage of Ed Bader the 1950 track squad completed one of the most successful seasons in B. H. S. history.

The team took top honors in every contest in which they participated, with the exception of the State meet.

Captain this year was Ray De Young, one of the team's outstanding runners.

Among the many feats accomplished by the squad was the breaking of the shuttle hurdles mark by 9/10 of a second in the Beaverton relays.

THE EXERCISE WAS EXCELLENT

Bad luck, partially due to lack of practice, followed the girls' volleyball team, which lost all its games.

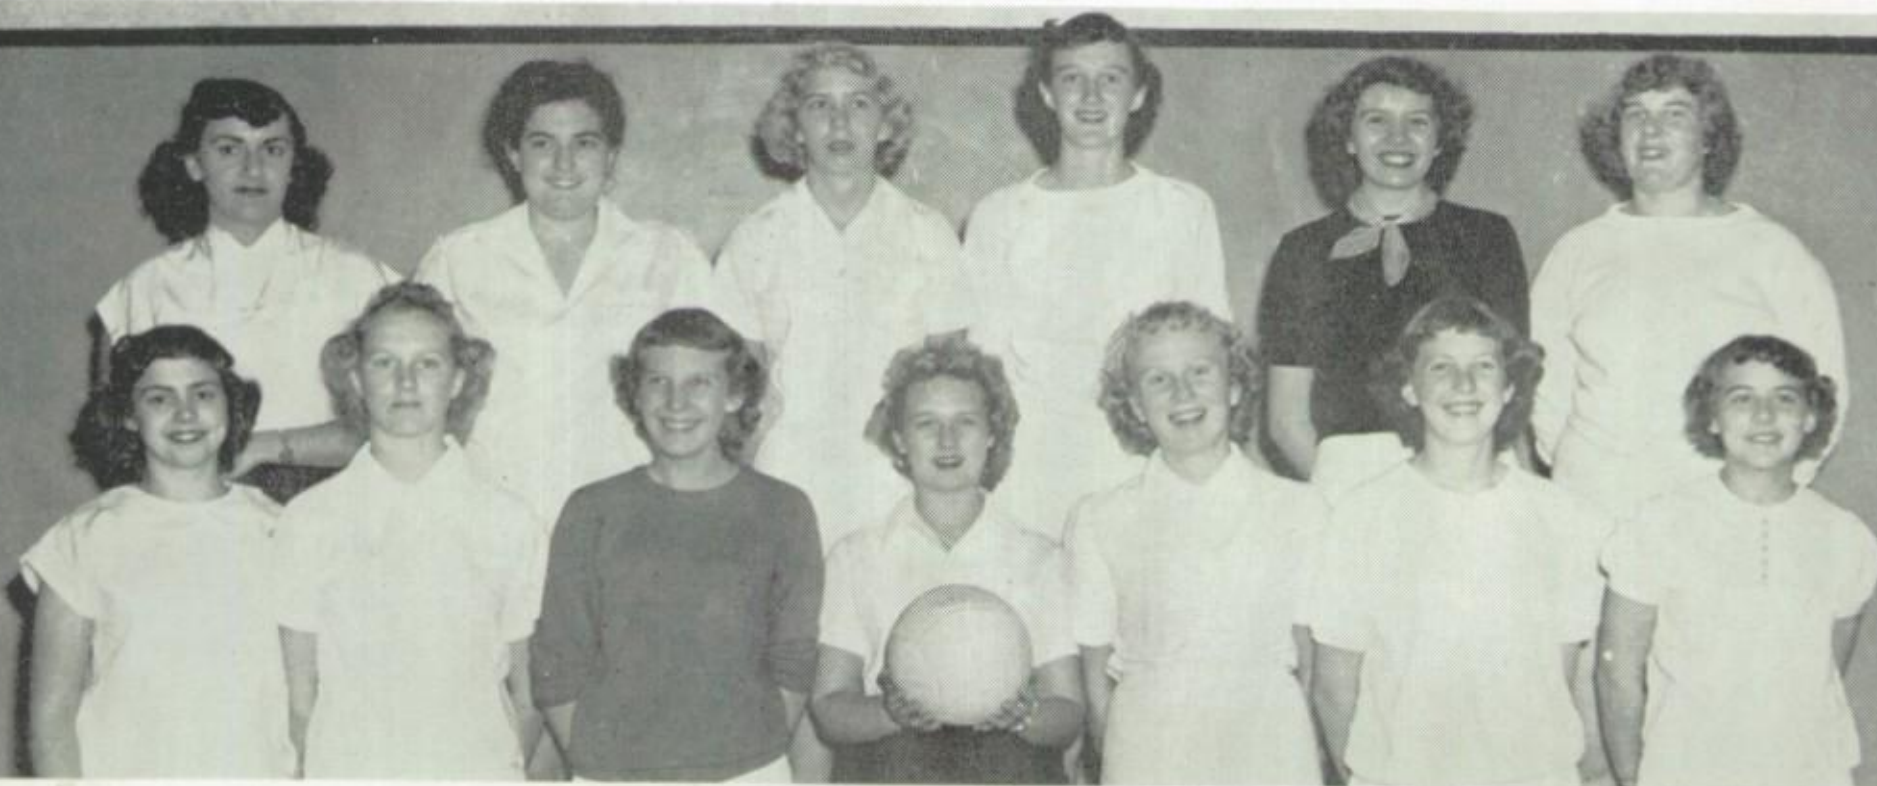

Perhaps the best game played was the last one with Tigard when the girls lost by a small margin. Other schools played were Hillsboro and Sherwood.

Coaches were Miss Elaine Hayden, A-Squad. and Mrs. Sylvia Gilbert, B-Squad. Kathleen Kennish and Joanne Ferguson were scorekeepers.

Row 1—Joan Hamilton, Mary Lou Crandall, Nancy Shortridge, Mona Lee Gosslin, Gloria Rawles.

Row 2—Miss Hayden, Pat Schlaht, Ruth Rhone, Shirley Van Hyning, Phyllis Palmrose, Beverly Johnson, La Vonne Hiller.

Row 1—Gayle Benson, Darlene Livengood, Jill Meeke, Kay Bader, Ann Jansen, Jill Neese, Rose Marie Law.

Row 2—Mrs. Gilbert, Elsie Gentry, Bernadine Bergstrom, Janet Wooten, Barbara Prince, Colleen Helmcke.

With skill and equal determination Mary Lou easily bowls her ball down the alley.

GIRL HOOPSTERS PROVIDE NOON ENTERTAINMENT

Girls' basketball helped provide noon entertainment throughout the winter.

With six to eight girls on a team, eighteen teams competed for the championship.

Championship team was the "Atom Bums." Winners of the booby prize were "The Unknowns."

BOWLERS NEOPHYTES OF GIRLS' SPORTS

Newest of girls' sports was the bowling club.

The girls organized themselves in early December. Every Thursday found them jamming a school bus to go to the Canyon Bowl.

With the assistance of Ed Nelson, manager, the girls learned some of the elements of good bowling form. Scores improved with form and they managed to bowl "In the low 100's instead of the high 50's."

Two of the most outstanding bowlers were Beverly Johnson and Miss Elaine Hayden, advisor. They managed to rack up 175 and 176 respectively.

Others who maintained high averages were Kathleen Kennish, Gloria Rawles and Kay Bader.

Officers of the group were Phyllis Palmrose, president; Marjie Keehn, secretary; and Marilyn Thompson, treasurer.

The girls were advised by Miss Elaine Hayden.

Row 1—A. Enger, K. Bader, Audrey Enger, M. Keehn, D. Kluser, C. Gamrath.

SOLO PERFORMANCE

Beaverton's one-girl swimming team, Lavelle Flannery, senior, has held her own among city, state, and interstate competition. Lavelle has been swimming since she was five. Beginning competition in the eighth grade, Lavelle has won 17 trophies. This year she won firsts in both the 220-yard free style and the 100-yard free style. Her swimming has taken her to Canada, San Francisco and Seattle. Lavelle's main ambition is to swim the English Channel.

THEY WORKED LIKE TROUPERS

Keeping the cage in order is the duty of the gym leaders. Checking shoes and gym clothes and handing out clean towels keep them busy. The leaders are elected by the members of their classes, two for each of the morning classes and three for each of the larger afternoon classes.

Students practice saying "A serpentine a day, will keep studies away," the afternoon before a football game.

Despite the array of contorted faces, Mr. Webb's speech class was a 100% room thanks to the salesmanship of Audrey Enger and Joanne Ferguson.
